

Civic engagement with
Andy Geppert

MEEP! Is a beautiful picture book by Andy which celebrates difference. Read online with students

Explore Andy's artwork. Pick one piece and take time to connect by slow looking with students. Create a scene for the animal or story to accompany.

Support students to consider how they can help their Backyard Buddies with this engaging Civics in Pictures activity.

Catch up on our Backyard Buddies digital event with Andy Geppert!

Make a fantastic 'Bin Chicken' hat with Andy!
What other interesting bird hat could students make?

Explore Andy's latest book The Balloon Blow Up. A great introduction to decision making for our littlest humans.

Be an active citizen! In this activity students will design a badge, t-shirt, poster or video to tell others how important our Backyard Buddies are to the environment.

Discover how to help local birds thrive with this Civics in Pictures citizen science activity.
