

HAVE AN HOUR?

Visit the heart of one of Australia's most loved buildings – King's Hall. From here, sit in the beautiful leather chairs and experience the charm and character of the Chambers. Move on to the Prime Minister's Suite and the Prime Ministers of Australia exhibition to get to know our PMs. End your visit with a coffee or snack at the Terrace Café.

HAVE MORE TIME?

Pick from one of our guided tours of the museum, walk through the corridors of power and be surprised by our engaging array of exhibitions. Finish your visit with lunch at Hoi Polloi or a coffee at the Terrace Café.

WITH THE FAMILY?

Kids will love our interactive exhibition PlayUP; or embarking on a museum adventure with a family action pack; having their photograph taken in the replica Speaker's Chair; or getting imaginative in our DressUP area.

NEED A GIFT?

Find that ideal memento or present for friends and family at the MoAD Little Corner Shop.

WELCOME TO THE

MUSEUM OF AUSTRALIAN DEMOCRACY

Housed in iconic Old Parliament House, MoAD (Museum of Australian Democracy) tells the story of Australia's democracy, what it is now, how it got to be this way and what it might become in the future in bold and arresting fashion. Hard conversations are embraced not avoided. Achievements are celebrated, failures acknowledged and democratic engagement deepened.
