

NAIDOC Week

For Our Elders

Connect with a DART
virtual excursion.

MoAD is celebrating with author Sue Lawson!

Read this post by Wingaru: it expands on what 'For Our Elders' means and includes
activities to support.

We Are Australians
explores what it means to be a citizen. Connect with the natural environment, culture and with each other through this book and engaging activity.

Explore the NAIDOC
poster for 2023! Watch the video about the artist, Bobbi Lockyer and what the theme means to her.

Discover the 50 Word
Project. Explore
accompanying learning resources for An Important Message from Mr Beaky by Cassie
Leatham and Sue Lawson.

Check out what your local NAIDOC
committee has planned
this year for NAIDOC
week.

Does your region have sites of significance to the traditional custodians?
Check out this map and connect with your local elders.

Create your own Acknowledgement of Country. Submit your entry into the ABC
Education poster competition.

Read Finding Our Heart
by Thomas Mayor then check out this MoAD learning resource to accompany.

SBS has a wide range of Indigenous recipes.
Check them out and give one a go!

Looking for themed picture books? Explore the National Centre of Australian Children's Literature database.

For more NAIDOC
activities visit the MoAD Civics in Pictures page!